

This photograph taken at the inaugural meeting of the North-West Gaelic League in Gortahork, was sent in by Mr. Jerry McGuinness, 90 Culmore Road, Derry. He was able to supply all the names but one and would like to hear from anyone who can add to the information given below. It is thought the picture was taken around the time of World War I. Seated, from left to right, J. L. Murrin, Anthony Doherty, Fr. James McGettigan, unknown, Dr. Douglas Hyde, P. O'Daly, Fr. John O'Doherty, Mr. P. J. Flanagan (former editor of the "Derry Journal"). Standing, from left to right, Harry Coll, James McGill, Mrs. Nellie Flanagan, Nora Glass (Ivor Smith's mother), Sheila McGuinness (Hugh's wife), Thomas McCarter ("Derry Journal" employee), Ned MacDermott, Cissy Casey, Fr. Doherty (Newtownstewart), H. Duffy.